

myTRICARE News Privacy Policy

myTRICARE is committed to protecting your privacy. When subscribing to receive myTRICARE email updates, we want you to know...

1. By subscribing to myTRICARE News, you are consenting to receive publications to your email address. You may opt out of receiving publications by clicking the unsubscribe link included in each email communication.
2. We do not sell, trade or otherwise convey your name, e-mail address or other personal identifiers. Personal information that you submit to us while subscribing to receive myTRICARE email updates, is used for the sole purpose for which it is submitted.
3. myTRICARE email communications may contain links to other Web sites. myTRICARE is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of other Web sites or how information you provide to other Web sites is handled. You should consult the individual privacy policies of those Web sites to determine their privacy practices.